MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

- Jesse Marlow will view all the photographs provided and will select the works for the exhibition. Students accepted will receive a confirmation email.
- All students listed above have consented for their name, year level, school name and photographic artwork to be in the exhibition. By signing this form, the teacher has consented for their student's works to be in the exhibition.
- The students confirm that the work they are submitting is their own original work.
- There is no cost nor fee for inclusion in the exhibition.

COPYRIGHT / PERMISSIONS / RIGHTS TO REPRODUCE

- The partner school authorises the Ballarat International Foto Biennale to photograph the delivery of the exhibition for publicity purposes.
- The partner school authorises the Ballarat International Foto Biennale to reproduce student artwork by print or electronic media for publicity purposes, reports, catalogues and any other publications. Where permissible due attribution will be made to the student and copyright of all works remains with the copyright owner.

RIGHTS OF BIFB

The Ballarat International Foto Biennale reserves the right to terminate this arrangement if it is deemed to be illegal, defamatory or offensive or otherwise contrary to the intentions of the organisation.

The Ballarat International Foto Biennale has full and exclusive rights to this program and this program must not be shared, adapted or in any way changed or used by any third party educators.

PROMOTIONAL MATERIALS

- Any promotional and/or publicity material relating specifically to the program, including but not exclusive to DL cards, posters, newsletter entries, press or magazine ads, website or blog entries must reference both the Ballarat International Foto Biennale and the school, and feature the BIFB logo.
